aliandreeamakeup You all know my love for @biologique_recherche ! I finally got the chance to film at the very first house of Biologique Recherche and show you more about what is like to get an appointment at this amazing institute! This is one of those "to do" things on your list when you're coming to Paris! Here's just a sneak peek but you have the full video on my YouTube Channel! Link in the bio. Thank you @biologique_recherche !

products so I figured it is better to get to the source and get all the information for it I did, but from what you're going to see in the video it turns out my skin is kind you can't see it that well in my regular videos, but in here you'll realize that it's understanding on this one. I didn't have enough footage so I've actually mixed s in August.
