Biologique Recherche Masque Visolastine +, $110, biologique-recherche.com.

Have you heard about the cult-favourite, French beauty brand, Biologique Recherche? If you haven't, it's hero product is P50, a hybrid of a liquid that exfoliates and balances all skin types. It's really good! Like great. But we want to talk about the new kid in their lineup that has serious potential, the Masque Visolastine +. This at-home mask not only boosts hydration moment after use, it reinforces and protects the hydration in the upper layers of the epidermis. Four hour after this treatment your hydration levels actually increase by 16%!
